5 The Terrace, Easton

Easton Hampshire

2 Beds 1 Baths

A two storey end of terrace cottage believed to have been built in 1860. Situated in the heart of the village of Easton which lies in the Itchen Valley on the north eastern side of the cathedral city of Winchester.

A delightful 2 bedroom end of terrace cottage with mains gas heating and a log burner in the sitting room. The kitchen/diner has a built in dishwasher, fridge/freezer, oven, hob and microwave and benefits from a door leading out to the patio and rear garden where there is private parking for two vehicles and a large shed.

The first floor has two good size double bedrooms and a bathroom with separate shower.
